LASLAB WORKSHOP
ON CROSSSLINGUISTIC INFLUENCE:
Working with crosslinguistic effects in the classroom
CHARACTERISTICS OF THE WORKSHOP

The study of crosslinguistic influence is one of the areas of greatest interest not only to SLA researchers but also to practitioners in multilingual educational programmes: immersion, CLIL, content-based education, among others.

In this workshop, invited speakers will provide an overview of current approaches to crosslinguistic effects in multilingual contexts. They will offer evidence of these phenomena at different levels: (a) neurological (b) phonetic/phonological, (c) lexical, and (d) morpho-syntactic levels. During the workshop, presenters will also discuss ways of exploiting those areas of crosslinguistic influence in the foreign language classroom, so that current and prospective teachers that attend the workshop learn about how their learners’ L1s affect the acquisition of a second/third language and what they can do to make the most of this crosslinguistic influence in the classroom.
